

DIRECTIVE PICKUP PLUS

When in actual use, with peep sights and dual handles, this contraption looks more like a machine gun. Actually it is a highly directional microphone, used by Paramount Studios for special sound effects. Progressively longer  $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch dural tubes feed a W.E. 61BA dynamic microphone, the longest tube measuring 5 feet.